

Allison Miller's BOOM TIC BOOM

PURDUE
JAZZ FESTIVAL

Friday, January 22
8pm / Loeb Playhouse

Led by acclaimed drummer and composer Allison Miller, Boom Tic Boom is a jazz ensemble known for its razor-sharp precision and diverse, contemporary sonic palette—and celebrated by critics and musicians alike.

By blending classic drummer-led traditions with modern improvisation, Boom Tic Boom has achieved widespread recognition. Celebrating over a decade of music together, the group has earned numerous "Top 10 Jazz Albums" accolades and performed at premier international festivals and on renowned programs like NPR's Fresh Air and Tiny Desk. Their performance will serve as an energizing kick-off to the 37th Annual Purdue Jazz Festival, which brings thousands of middle- and high-school musicians to Purdue's campus.

Support from Drs. Marshall and Berdine Martin

Additional support from Dr. Sandra Sydnor, Bob and Tammy Loew, Purdue Bands and Orchestras
